SECTION I - READING COMPREHENSION (30p)

GRANNY'S CRAZY DAY!

Sam's grandmother is 65 years old and she always does the same things every day. She gets up at seven o'clock, has breakfast at nine, listens to the radio, and goes for a walk before lunch.

Today Sam is staying at his grandmother's house.

"Gran, let's do something different today!" he says.

"What do you mean?" asks his grandmother.

"Let's have sausages for breakfast!"

His grandmother laughs. "I never eat sausages for breakfast!" she says. But then she smiles. "OK!"

After breakfast, Sam says, "Let's go for a walk now."

"But I always listen to the radio first," says his grandmother. Then she smiles again. "All right! Let's go!"

They are walking to the town square when Sam has another idea.

"Let's have pizza for lunch!" he says.

"I never eat pizza," says his grandmother. But she tries some and loves it.

After lunch, Sam wants to go home, but his grandmother smiles and says, "No! Let's fly a kite and eat cakes in the park!"

Sam laughs. "OK, Gran! You really are a great grandmother!"

"And you are a great grandson, Sam!" she says.
